detailed information regarding the examination will be given in an Information Handout which will be made available for the candidates to download along with the call letters from the LIC website (www.licindia.in) under the head Careers.

Candidate MUST pass in each Section separately and should also obtain minimum marks in the aggregate to qualify for the online examinations (Preliminary and Main) and the interview. The responses (answers) of individual candidates with other candidates would be analyzed to detect patterns of similarity of right and wrong answers. If in the analytical procedure adopted in this regard, it is inferred/concluded that the responses have been shared and scores obtained are not genuine/valid, LIC reserves the right to cancel the candidature of the concerned candidate and the result of such candidates (disqualified) will be withheld. The Corporation shall have the absolute right to conduct, at any stage, a detailed analysis of candidates' responses—both correct and incorrect—across examinations, for the purpose of detecting patterns indicative of copying, collusion, use of unfair means, or any other malpractice. If, on the basis of such analytical procedures or any other investigative method adopted, the Corporation forms the opinion—whether conclusively proven or not—that a candidate's scores are not genuine or valid, the candidature shall be cancelled forthwith and such candidate shall stand disqualified.

In such cases, the result of the candidate will be withheld permanently, and the Corporation may, at its sole discretion, also debar the candidate from future recruitment processes for such period as it deems appropriate.

The minimum marks to be obtained in each Section is mentioned separately above and cut off marks for each section and in the aggregate shall be decided by LIC. Descriptive test of English Language is of qualifying nature and the marks in this test will not be counted for ranking. The decision of LIC in this regard shall be final and binding on the candidates. No correspondence will be entertained in this regard. The number of candidates to be called for interview will be approximately three times the number of vacancies to be filled in, subject to the availability of successful candidates in the online main examination and will be as per their ranking in their respective category.

The corrected scores obtained by each of the candidates in different sessions (if held) will be normalized using equi-percentile equating method.

The Scores of Online Examination are obtained by adopting the following procedure:

- (i) Number of questions answered correctly by a candidate in each objective test is considered for arriving at the Score.
- (ii) The score so obtained by a candidate are made equivalent to take care of the minor difference in difficulty level, if any, in each of the objective tests held in different sessions to arrive at the Equated Scores* * Scores obtained by candidates on any test are equated to the base form by considering the distribution of scores of all the forms.
- (iii) Test wise scores and scores on total is reported with decimal point upto two digits.

Guidelines for Persons with Benchmark Disabilities using a scribe:

- (i) The visually impaired candidates and candidates whose writing speed is adversely affected permanently for any reason can use their own scribe at their cost during the online examination (Preliminary and Main). In all such cases where a scribe is used, the following rules will apply:
- The candidate will have to arrange his/her own scribe at his/her own cost.
 - The scribe arranged by the candidate should not be a candidate appearing for the same examination. If violation of the above is detected at any stage of the process, candidature of both the candidate and the scribe will be cancelled. Candidates eligible for and who wish to use the services of a scribe in the examination should invariably carefully indicate the same in the online application form. Any subsequent request may not be favourably entertained.
 - A person acting as a scribe for one candidate cannot be a scribe for another candidate.
 - The qualification of the scribe should be one step below the qualification of the candidate.
 - The scribe should not be a current/Ex-employee of LIC of India.
 - The scribe should be from an academic stream different from the candidate.
 - Both the candidate as well as scribe will have to give a suitable undertaking confirming that the scribe fulfils all the stipulated eligibility criteria for a scribe mentioned above. Further in case it later transpires that he/she did not fulfil any laid down eligibility criteria or suppressed material facts the candidature of the applicant will stand cancelled, irrespective of the result of the online examination.
 - Those candidates who use a scribe shall be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for every hour of the examination or as otherwise advised.
 - Only candidates registered for compensatory time will be allowed such concessions since compensatory time given to candidates shall be system based, it shall not be possible for the test conducting agency to allow such time if he / she is not registered for the same. Candidates not registered for compensatory time shall not be allowed such concessions.
 - During the exam, at any stage, if it is found that scribe is independently answering the questions, the exam session will be terminated and candidate's candidature will be cancelled. The candidature of such candidates using the services of a scribe will also be cancelled if it is reported after the examination by the test administrator personnel that the scribe independently answered the questions.
 - In addition to the above, LIC shall have the sole discretion to conduct verification of the scribe's identity, qualifications, and background at any stage of the recruitment process. If any discrepancy, misrepresentation, or falsification of details is detected—whether intentional or otherwise—the candidature of the candidate shall be cancelled forthwith, and LIC reserves the right to initiate legal proceedings, including recovery of costs and damages, against the candidate and/or scribe.
- (ii) Guidelines for Candidates with locomotor disability and cerebral palsy:
A compensatory time of twenty minutes per hour or otherwise advised shall be permitted for the candidates with locomotor disability and cerebral palsy where dominant (writing) extremity is affected to the extent of slowing the performance of function (minimum of 40% impairment).
- (iii) Guidelines for Visually Impaired candidates:
Visually Impaired candidates (who suffer from not less than 40% of disability) may opt to view the contents of the test in magnified font and all such candidates will be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for every hour of examination or as otherwise advised.
- (iv) The facility of viewing the contents of the test in magnifying font will not be available to Visually Impaired candidates who use the services of a Scribe for the examination.
- (v) Guidelines for candidates with Intellectual Disability
A Compensatory time of twenty minutes per hour of examination, either availing the services of a scribe or not, shall be permitted to the candidates with more than 40% Intellectual Disability and Multiple disability.
- (vi) Guidelines for candidates with specified disabilities:
In addition to instructions applicable to PwBD candidates (who have disability of 40% or more), following rule will apply for persons with specified disabilities covered under the definition of Section 2(s) of the RPwD Act, 2016 but not covered under the definition of Section 2(r) of the said Act, i.e. persons having less than 40% disability and having difficulty in writing:

The facility of scribe and/or compensatory time shall be granted solely to those having difficulty in writing subject to production of a certificate to the effect that person concerned has limitation to write and that scribe is essential to write examination on his/her behalf from the competent medical authority of a Government healthcare institution as per proforma at Appendix-I.

The person opting for the scribe should submit details of the scribe as per proforma at Appendix-II.

These guidelines are subject to change in terms of GOI guidelines/ clarifications, if any, from time to time.

The declaration of candidates using scribe has to be as per Annexure-II
